Top of the South 4 days 3 nights with your friends

Need to get away and do something different?

Blow out the cobwebs with the Top of The South Blast to Nelson and Abel Tasman with a dash of Rafting to cap off a great summer.

Day 1:

Christchurch to Nelson (415 km, 5.5 hours driving)

Travel up through North Canterbury to Cheviot for morning tea and then over the Hundalee hills and along the stunning coastline to Kaikoura where we have lunch and visit the Seal Colony. In the afternoon we will travel via Blenheim stopping at the Pelorus Bridge (one of the Hobbit river scenes) and on to Nelson where we will be based for the next 3 nights. Stay: YHA Nelson

Day 2:

Nelson - Marahau return (150km, 2.5 hours driving)

Head to the Abel Tasman National Park to enjoy the stunning beach, sea and bush views. This is our kayak and walk day. You will kayak for a couple of hours along the beautiful coast to a quiet little bay for lunch. After lunch we will walk back along the Abel Tasman track to where we started at Marahau.

Stay: YHA Nelson

Day 3:

Options Day:

The bus will head up to Cable Bay Adventure Park for the morning for those that want to try the sky wire flying fox (it's the longest in the world!). In the afternoon you have time to go to beach, Go-karts, shop, walk, or visit a local crafts person. There is even the centre of NZ to find if you want to.

Stay: YHA Nelson

Day 4:

Nelson to Christchurch (415 km, 5.5 hours driving)

It's an early start this morning we head to Murchison for a rafting experience on the mighty Buller River with a professional guide through native bush and with scenery like no other. We get back and have a quick lunch before the final run back home. We should have you back around 6pm
